

GIRLS WANT BEER AT SMITH COLLEGE

Question Raised Over Fair in Gymnasium.

IN LITTLE GERMAN GARDEN

Some of the Young Women Are Shocked at Suggestion—May Serve Birch Beverage.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 27.—Will beer be served in the German Inn at the fair to be given by the Western Massachusetts Alumnae Association of Smith College, in the gymnasium Saturday afternoon and evening? This is the question that the students are asking, and it has not yet been answered. Many of the students are shocked at the suggestion, while others in the college, particularly the Westerners, agree that the German inn will be a poor imitation without the regulation beverage. The fair is to represent the "lives of all nations," and will be for the benefit of the students' aid fund. A French cafe, a colonial tavern and a German beer garden are among the fairs to be represented. The dishes are to be characteristic of the different countries. Several members of the Smith College faculty have agreed to take charge, and in the beer garden one of the German teachers has consented to appear as a German peasant, with white blouse, black velvet glove, plaid skirt to the ankles, white stockings and buckled shoes. Because of the talk which has arisen, root beer and birch beer steins will probably be the strongest beverages on sale.

MASONS ATTEND FUNERAL OF S. J. HAISLETT

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock over the remains of S. J. Haislett, for many years a prominent business man of this city, who died of heart disease at his home, 1650 Huron street northwest, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

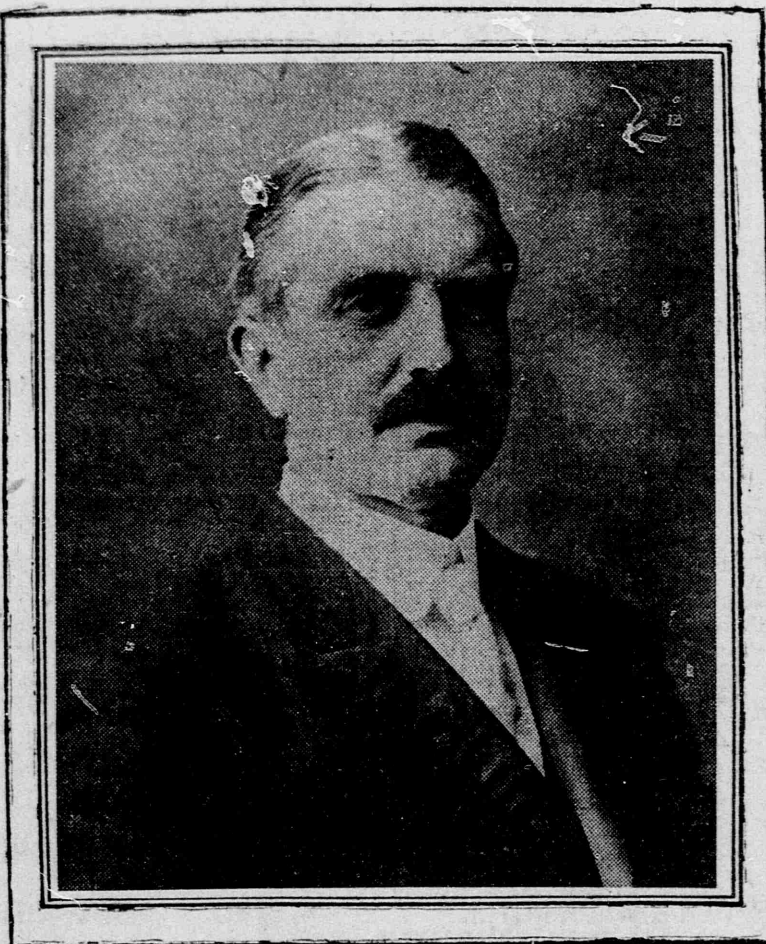

The funeral was attended by many Masons and orders in a body to which Mr. Haislett belonged. The remains were interred at Arlington.

Mr. Haislett was born at Savage, Md., April 9, 1838, and came to this city in 1878. He engaged in the evening and decorating business and continued in that line until ill health forced him to retire in 1902. He was a member of the Mystic Shrine, a Knight Templar, a member of Royal Arch Chapter, and of Lafayette Lodge, No. 15, F. A. A. M. He was also a member of Metropolitan Lodge, I. O. O. F., and of Lincoln Post, G. A. R.

Mr. Haislett was married twice. His second wife survives him. He has five sisters living; Mrs. Margaret H. Balderston, and Mrs. Susan W. Carter, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Catherine Barnes, of New York, and Mrs. Amney E. Thompson, and Mrs. Martha W. Cole, of Annapolis.

Baltimore and Return, B. & O. R. R., Saturday and Sunday $1.25. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited. "Hourly Service" week days.

INSTALLED AS THE PASTOR OF GUNTON TEMPLE CHURCH

THE REV. JOHN LEE ALLISON, D. D.

Had Been in Charge of the Westminster Presbyterian Church at Baltimore for Seven Years Prior to His Call to Washington.

THE REV. DR. ALLISON INSTALLED AS PASTOR

Impressive Ceremony Occurred at Gunton Temple Memorial Church—Informal Reception Follows.

With impressive ceremony the Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., was installed last night as pastor of Gunton Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, Fourteenth and R streets northwest. The services were attended by a large crowd, and the church was tastefully decorated. The pulpit was banked with Easter lilies, carnations, roses, and palms.

The Rev. Albert Evans, pastor of the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, presided, and the Rev. George P. Wilson, pastor of the Assembly's Presbyterian Church, preached the installation sermon.

The Rev. J. H. Bradford, who has been acting moderator of the session since last September, opened the service with a prayer. This was followed by the installation sermon, after which the charge was formally delivered to the new pastor. The Rev. Donald MacLeod, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church, then delivered an address, in which he made an eloquent appeal to the congregation to be loyal to their leader.

The Rev. B. F. Bittinger, D. D., the veteran stated clerk of the presbytery of Washington, was unable to attend the services, and in his place the Rev. Mr. Evans offered the installation prayer. A benediction by the Rev. Dr. Allison closed the meeting.

Informal Reception Follows.

At the close of the exercises an informal reception was given the Rev. Dr. Allison by the members of his church and others present. Two anthems were rendered by the regular church quartet, and Mrs. E. D. Anderson sang a solo.

The Rev. Dr. Allison was pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Baltimore for seven years. He gave up his charge there about a month ago to accept a call to the pastorate of Gunton Temple Memorial Church here. He is a prominent member of the Baltimore presbytery and is well known in Washington. He is one of the most eloquent speakers in the Presbyterian church.

NEWS OF GEORGETOWN

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Leaworthy Brigham Paine, who died on Tuesday at her home, 181 Columbia road northwest, will take place tomorrow afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock. Services will be conducted over the remains at the home.

Mrs. Paine was the widow of Gen. Halbert E. Paine, late Justice of the Peace of the Georgetown district, who died about ten days ago. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Story B. Ladd.

She was about eighty years of age, and had been a resident of Washington about thirty-five years.

CITIZENS' MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Georgetown Citizens' Association will be held Monday evening at Co-operative Hall, 1225 Thirty-second street northwest. President Thompson has invited Charles C. Lancaster, president of the Northwest Citizens' Suburban Association, to attend the meeting and make an address. A number of important matters will be brought to the attention of the association.

SITE FOR WIDOWS' HOME.

There is some probability of the old seminary building at Thirtieth and N streets northwest, being turned into a home for indigent widows. The will of the late Margaret Edes, of Georgetown, provides for the establishment of such a home in Georgetown, about $100,000 being set aside for the purpose. Nothing will be done, however, for at least one year.

PERCH PLENTIFUL.

Local fishermen say that perch are plentiful in the Potomac in the vicinity of the Three Sisters, west of Georgetown. James Robinson, of the Conduit road, yesterday caught forty-five, ranging in weight from one to two pounds.

Mississippi catfish are also caught in numbers in this vicinity.

GOES TO NEW CHARGE.

The Rev. Frank H. Havenner, former pastor of the Dumbarton Avenue M. E. Church, of Georgetown, will leave in a few days for Baltimore, Md., where he will take up the duties of his new charge there. His successor as pastor of the Dumbarton Avenue Church, is Rev. George W. King, formerly of Boston, Mass.

RETURN HOME.

William P. Lennon and Arthur W. Hood, of Pawtucket, R. I., have returned to their homes after a ten-day visit here.

BUILDING NEARLY DONE.

R. W. Darby, the builder, has nearly completed the construction of two frame dwellings on the south side of Prospect avenue northwest, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets northwest, for George W. King, of 1225 Thirty-second street.

NO PAVEMENT ABOUT THESE GROWING TREES

The engineer department of the District has just arrived at a decision as to whether the tree space within the limits of the east sidewalk of Lincoln avenue, north of Riggs place northeast, and partly in front of the Emory School, between the telephone pole and curb, should be paved or not.

Engineer Commissioner Biddle announced today that he had decided in the negative.

The North Capitol and Eckington Citizens' Association asked for this improvement on February 2.

You know the peculiar fascination that a good railroad story has. You've felt it.

Have you ever stopped to think why there are so few good railroad stories? The reason is simple. There are so few men with story telling powers who have lived the life of a railroad man.

That's why The Washington Sunday Times is especially fortunate in getting for your reading the

GEORGIE REED SEEKS RELEASE FROM JAIL

Georgie Reed, who is imprisoned in the District jail under a sentence of the Police Court, has filed a petition in the District Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus with a view of procuring her release from custody.

She says she was sentenced to jail October 18, 1904, for a period of 180 days, and also to pay a fine of $100. In default of the payment of the fine she was to serve 180 days additional time.

The Reed woman says she has served 180 days, and has tendered to the Police Court authorities her fine of $100, and it was not accepted. The matter will come up for consideration tomorrow before Justice Stafford. Messrs. Jones, Clinkscales and Bacon are counsel for the petitioner.

MANY FRIENDS MOURN DEATH OF POLICEMAN

Arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral of Harry E. Marks, a former member of the Metropolitan police force, who died at the Homeopathic Hospital last night, shortly after 10 o'clock.

Marks was one of the oldest men in the service and had an enviable record. Because of his congeniality and thoughtfulness he had a host of friends who learned of his death today with profound sorrow. He resided at 323 Seventh street southeast, and was especially well known in that section of the city.

Marks is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Prosser. Physicians say inflammation of the bladder caused his death.
